

Table of Contents

Asymmetric Information in Public Administration

Przejdź do produktu na ksiegarnia.beck.pl

Table of Contents

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Preface | XIII |
| About the Authors | XIX |
| Part I. The Multi-Dimensional Nature of Asymmetric Information in Public Administration – From Clear Answers to Difficult Questions | 1 |
| Chapter 1. The Administrative Perspective on the Asymmetry of Information (Piotr Lisowski) | 3 |
| Abstract | 3 |
| 1. Introduction – systemic conditions/ signum temporis | 4 |
| 2. Information needs of public administration as a topos of the legal order | 6 |
| 3. The evidentiary context of the information needs of public administration | 7 |
| 4. Information deficits of public administration as a determinant of a legal institution – example from the Act on Social Welfare | 9 |
| 5. The problem of the objective lack of evidence (a brief mention) | 10 |
| 6. Conclusions | 10 |
| Bibliography | 11 |
| Chapter 2. Computerization of Public Administration and the Implications for Information Asymmetry (Jolanta Blicharz, Lidia Zacharko) | 13 |
| Abstract | 13 |
| 1. Introduction | 13 |
| 2. Is the progressing computerization a response to the threats of information asymmetry? | 15 |
| 3. Conclusions | 20 |
| Bibliography | 21 |
| Chapter 3. Information Asymmetry and Obligation of Public Officers to Submit Asset Declarations (Jan Gola) | 23 |
| Abstract | 23 |

Table of Contents

| | |
|---|--------|
| 1. Introduction..... | 23 |
| 2. Transparency of asset declarations | 24 |
| 3. Officers submitting asset declarations and their content | 25 |
| 4. Deadlines and procedure for submitting asset declarations..... | 28 |
| 5. Conclusions..... | 30 |
| Bibliography | 32 |
| Chapter 4. Asymmetry of Information between Central and Local Government using the Example of the Operation of the Joint Central and Local Government Commission (Justyna Przedajska) | 33 |
| Abstract | 33 |
| 1. Introduction..... | 33 |
| 2. Status and nature of the Commission | 34 |
| 3. Fighting a losing battle, namely the JCLGC's activities in 2015–2020 | 37 |
| 4. Conclusions..... | 39 |
| Bibliography | 41 |
| Chapter 5. Information Asymmetry in the Municipality (Jolanta Behr) | 43 |
| Abstract | 43 |
| 1. Introduction..... | 44 |
| 2. The municipality – general remarks..... | 45 |
| 3. Selected examples of information asymmetry | 47 |
| 3.1. Information asymmetry in external relations | 47 |
| 3.2. Information asymmetry in internal relations | 49 |
| 3.2.1. Information asymmetry from the point of view of the municipality's bodies..... | 49 |
| 3.2.2. Information asymmetry from the point of view of the municipality's residents | 51 |
| 4. Conclusions..... | 52 |
| Bibliography | 54 |
| Chapter 6. Information Asymmetry in Spatial Planning and Zoning (Justyna Mielczarek-Mikołajów) | 55 |
| Abstract | 55 |
| 1. Introduction..... | 55 |
| 2. Information asymmetry | 57 |
| 3. Principle of information and openness in public administration | 58 |
| 4. Access to information in the law on spatial planning and zoning | 59 |
| 5. Information asymmetry in planning and zoning | 61 |
| 6. Conclusions..... | 65 |

Table of Contents

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Bibliography | 66 |
| Part II. Different Dimensions of Asymmetric Information in Social Welfare Administration and Public Education – How Many Dimensions Are There? | 69 |
| Chapter 7. Information Asymmetry in Social Welfare (Dominika Cendrowicz) | 71 |
| Abstract | 71 |
| 1. Introduction | 71 |
| 2. Social welfare as an area where information asymmetry appears in public administration | 72 |
| 3. Causes of information asymmetry in social welfare | 74 |
| 4. Methods of reducing information asymmetry in administrative proceedings with regard to social welfare benefits | 76 |
| 5. The role of e-government in reducing information asymmetry in social welfare | 78 |
| 6. Conclusions | 79 |
| Bibliography | 81 |
| Chapter 8. Information Asymmetry in Public Education – Selected Topics (Renata Raszewska-Skałeka) | 83 |
| Abstract | 83 |
| 1. Education service activity of schools vs. the COVID-19 epidemic | 83 |
| 2. Remote education methods and techniques vs. the COVID-19 epidemic | 89 |
| 3. Conclusions | 90 |
| Bibliography | 91 |
| Part III. Asymmetric Information in Communication between Public Administration and Entrepreneurs | 93 |
| Chapter 9. Information Asymmetry in Public Commercial Law (Karol Kiczka) | 95 |
| Abstract | 95 |
| 1. Introduction | 96 |
| 2. Business activity in the social market economy | 97 |
| 3. Business activity and an individual ruling on tax law | 99 |
| 4. Conclusions | 103 |
| Bibliography | 104 |

Table of Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Chapter 10. Recommending Norms as a Reflection of Information Asymmetry between the Public Authority and Entrepreneurs (Witold Małecki) | 107 |
| Abstract | 107 |
| 1. Introduction | 108 |
| 2. The importance of information asymmetry to the establishment of recommending norms | 109 |
| 3. Recommending norms as an element of two-tier structures of legal norms | 111 |
| 4. Recommending norms in the context of the constitutional principle of the social market economy | 114 |
| 5. Conclusions | 115 |
| Bibliography | 116 |
| Chapter 11. Asymmetry of Information between Players on the Energy Market in Conditions of Energy Transformation (Agnieszka Chrisidu-Budnik, Jerzy Korczak) | 117 |
| Abstract | 117 |
| 1. Introduction | 117 |
| 2. Origin of the concept of information asymmetry | 119 |
| 3. Significance of the phenomenon of asymmetry of information to energy transformation activities | 120 |
| 3.1. Information asymmetry from the point of view of the category of market players | 121 |
| 3.2. Actions to change the information asymmetry | 124 |
| 4. Conclusions | 127 |
| Bibliography | 129 |
| Part IV. Asymmetric Information and Outsourcing Processes in Public Administration | 131 |
| Chapter 12. Asymmetry of Information in Public Procurement (Tadeusz Kocowski) | 133 |
| Abstract | 133 |
| 1. Introduction | 133 |
| 2. Procurement procedure with a value equal to or exceeding the EU thresholds | 135 |
| 3. Authority conducting the proceedings | 138 |
| 4. Contractors | 141 |
| 5. Conclusions | 142 |
| Bibliography | 143 |

Table of Contents

| | |
|--|------------|
| Chapter 13. The Problem of Information Asymmetry in Awarding Public Contracts (Krzysztof Horubski) | 145 |
| Abstract | 145 |
| 1. Introduction | 146 |
| 2. Problem of conflicting interests of participants on the public procurement market | 147 |
| 3. Problem of the abuse of information asymmetry and restrictions on contractual freedom in public procurement law | 149 |
| 4. Information asymmetry in the case of bid-rigging | 151 |
| 5. Conclusions | 155 |
| Bibliography | 156 |
| Chapter 14. Asymmetry of Information on Personal Data Protection in the Requirement of Employment in the Public Procurement Law (Michał Raduła) | 157 |
| Abstract | 157 |
| 1. Introduction | 157 |
| 2. Asymmetry of information | 158 |
| 3. A contractor's obligation to employ staff on an employment contract in public procurement | 160 |
| 4. Inequality of information held by the contracting authority and the contractor regarding the obligation of employment on an employment relationship | 164 |
| 5. Conclusions | 166 |
| Bibliography | 167 |
| Part V. Identifying Asymmetric Information Challenges in European (National) Public Administration Procedures | 169 |
| Chapter 15. Procedures for Counteracting Administrative Information Asymmetry in the Polish Administrative Procedure Code (Jerzy Supernat) | 171 |
| Abstract | 171 |
| 1. Introduction | 171 |
| 2. The Polish Administrative Procedure Code | 174 |
| 3. The principle of objective truth | 176 |
| 4. The principle of resolving interpretative (and factual) doubts in favor of the party | 177 |
| 5. The principle of increasing trust | 178 |
| 6. The principle of certainty | 178 |
| 7. The principle of providing information | 180 |

Table of Contents

| | |
|--|---------|
| 8. The principle of active participation of the parties in every stage of the proceedings | 180 |
| 9. The principle of explaining the grounds for settling the matter | 181 |
| 10. The principle of enabling the offices of the bodies of public administration to be assessed | 182 |
| 11. Conclusions | 183 |
| Bibliography | 184 |
| Chapter 16. Reduction of Asymmetry in Access to Information in European Union Administrative Procedures (Lukasz Prus) | 187 |
| Abstract | 187 |
| 1. Introduction | 187 |
| 2. The right to a defense | 188 |
| 3. The right of access to the file | 191 |
| 4. The right to be heard | 193 |
| 5. Duty to give reasons | 195 |
| 6. Conclusions | 196 |
| Bibliography | 197 |
| Chapter 17. Asymmetry in the Examination of a Case in Administrative and Administrative Court Proceedings (Krzysztof Sobieralski) | 199 |
| Abstract | 199 |
| 1. Introduction – the nature of administrative proceedings | 200 |
| 2. The concept of a party to administrative proceedings | 201 |
| 3. Administrative decision-making in the course of administrative proceedings | 203 |
| 4. The role and the nature of court-administrative proceedings | 206 |
| 5. Conclusions | 212 |
| Bibliography | 214 |
| Chapter 18. The Principle of Providing Information and the Participation of an Interpreter in Administrative Proceedings (Karolina Kulińska-Jachowska) | 217 |
| Abstract | 217 |
| 1. Introduction | 218 |
| 2. The principle of providing information in Polish administrative proceedings | 219 |
| 3. Provision of information and official language | 221 |
| 4. The scope of interpretation in administrative proceedings – right or obligation? | 224 |

Table of Contents

| | |
|---|------------|
| 5. Conclusions | 227 |
| Bibliography | 228 |
| Chapter 19. An Administrative Decision on the Temporary Seizure of Real Estate as an Example of Information Asymmetry in Public Administration (Małgorzata Kozłowska) | 229 |
| Abstract | 229 |
| 1. Information asymmetry – concept | 230 |
| 2. Reasons for asymmetry of information in public administration | 231 |
| 3. A diverse collection of information of the entities of the administrative law relationship regarding the temporary seizure of real estate as a sign of information asymmetry in public administration | 234 |
| 4. Conclusions | 237 |
| Bibliography | 238 |

Przejdz do księgarni →

księgarnia.beck.pl