

Contents

Foreword.....	1
Chapter I Introduction	3
1. Basic statistical information	3
2. Brief constitutional history	4
3. Access of Poland to NATO and to the EU	13
Chapter II Principles of the Constitutional System	15
1. Principle of the sovereignty of the nation	15
1.1. Principle of democracy	17
1.2. Principle of representation	18
1.3. Direct democracy	23
1.4. Political pluralism	25
2. Principle of the division of powers	28
3. Principle of the rule of law	31
4. The decentralization of authority	34
5. Principle of freedom of conscience and religion	35
6. Principles of the economic system	36
6.1. Principle of social market economy	36
6.2. The right of ownership	38
6.3. The freedom of economic activity	41
6.4. The freedom to choose occupation	43
Chapter III Sources of Polish Law	45
1. Types of the sources of law	45
2. Principle of the closed system of sources of law	47
3. Hierarchy of sources of law	49
4. The Constitution	50
4.1. The supreme position	50
4.2. Direct application	51
4.3. The text of the Constitution	56
5. International agreements and other sources of international law	57
6. Sources of European Union law	66

7. Statutes	74
8. Decree-laws	75
9. Ordinances	76
10. Acts of local law	78
11. Acts of internal character	79
12. Other sources of law	79
Chapter IV Constitution Making and Legislative Procedure	83
1. Constitution making and amendment procedure	83
2. Legislative procedure	89
2.1. Legislative initiative	89
2.2. Proceedings in the Sejm	95
2.3. Proceedings in the Senate	102
2.4. Consideration of the Senate's position by the Sejm	103
2.5. Promulgation – signing of a statute by the President of the Republic of Poland	109
2.6. Veto	110
2.7. Re-examination by the Sejm of a statute which the President refused to sign and removing statute's incongruities with the Constitution	113
2.8. Publishing the statute	114
2.9. Lobbying and law-making	114
2.10. Present State of Polish law	116
Chapter V Individual and the State	119
1. Basic rights and liberties	119
1.1. Constitutional concept of individual rights and liberties ..	119
1.2. Principles underlying constitutional regulation of individual rights and liberties	123
1.3 Distinction between human rights and liberties and citizens' rights and liberties	132
1.4. Distinction between constitutional rights and liberties and statutory rights and liberties	134
1.5. Types and catalogue of constitutional rights and liberties ...	134
2. Protection of the individual rights and liberties	140

3. Basic individual duties	146
3.1. Duties resting on everyone under the authority of the Republic of Poland	146
3.2. Duties resting on citizens	148
4. Polish citizenship	150
4.1. Principles of citizenship	151
4.2. Acquisition of Polish citizenship	152
4.3. Loss of Polish citizenship	155
Chapter VI System of the State Organs	157
1. Constitutional concept of the parliament	157
1.1. Structure of the parliament	157
1.2. Idea of the autonomy of the parliament	157
1.3. Term of office	158
1.4. Principle of the permanent mode of parliamentary work ...	159
1.5. Status of the representative (a deputy and a senator)	160
2. The Sejm	163
2.1. Organs (internal bodies) of the Sejm	163
2.2. Deputies' clubs and groups	169
2.3. Sittings and debates of the Sejm	169
2.4. Functions of the Sejm	170
3. The Senate	174
3.1. Organs of the Senate	174
3.2. Senators' clubs and groups	175
3.3. Sittings and debates of the Senate	176
3.4. Functions of the Senate	176
4. Model of executive power	179
4.1. President's competences	180
4.2. Liability of the President	186
4.3. Competences of the Council of Ministers	186
4.4. Responsibility of the government	193
4.5. Composition of the Council of Ministers	194
4.6. Organization and functioning of the Council of Ministers	195

4.7. Position of the Prime Minister	197
5. Judicial power	199
5.1. Constitutional concept of the judicial power	199
5.2. Constitutional principles of the system of justice	201
5.3. System of Bodies of Administration of Justice	205
5.4. Judges and lay judges	212
5.5. State Tribunal	214
5.6. Constitutional Tribunal	216
5.7. National Council of Judicature	221
5.8. Courts of Arbitration	222
5.9. Polish courts and the European Court of Justice	223
6. Bodies of State supervision and protection of law	224
6.1. Supreme Chamber of Supervision	224
6.2. Commissioner for Civil Rights Protection (Ombudsman) ..	226
6.3. Commissioner for Children's Rights	228
6.4. National Broadcasting Council	228
6.5. Inspector General for Personal Data Protection	229
Chapter VII Decentralization – Territorial Self-Government	231
1. Constitutional concept of the system of territorial self-government	231
2. Commune	237
3. County (district)	241
4. Province (voivodship)	245
5. Associations of territorial self-government units	248
6. Supervision	251